From Disaster Relief and Crisis Management to Sustainable Governance and Entrepreneurship in the Developing World

Leveraging the Israeli Start-Up Nation for a Lasting Impact

- First of its kind interdisciplinary program taught in English by leading international and Israeli professors at the Lauder School of Government, Diplomacy, and Strategy at the Interdisciplinary Center (IDC) Herzliya in collaboration with the Society for International Development – SID Israel and the School of Sustainability at the IDC.

- Covering topics, such as: Sustainable International Development; Disaster Relief & Humanitarian Aid; Project Management & Value Creation in Emerging Markets; and Regulation of Socio-Environmental Conflicts in Developing Countries.

- Featuring a Hands-On Workshop on Innovation and Development with industry, government, civil society, and research leaders in fields such as medicine, water, agri-tech, energy, and cyber.

- Offering internships in leading organizations and firms in developing countries or Israel

- Excellent applicants may be eligible to Pears Foundation Scholarships
GLOBAL IMPACT STUDIES:
From Disaster Relief and Crisis Management to Sustainable Governance and Entrepreneurship in the Developing World

The 6-week program will be offered at the IDC Herzliya between July 22, 2018 and August 31, 2018, on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

- Preparing students to use Israeli technologies and innovations to address pressing global challenges (e.g., disaster relief, clean water, renewable energy, infectious diseases, etc.) in emerging markets and developing countries.
- Offering interdisciplinary courses, such as “Building the Future: Sustainable International Development and Governance”; “From Disaster to Relief: Humanitarian Aid and Emergency Management”; “Teaching a Man to Fish: Project Management and Value Creation in Emerging Markets”; and “Managing Risks: Financial Governance and Socio-Environmental Conflicts” (the courses may be subject to possible changes).
- Featuring a hands-on workshop, where students meet with key representatives from Israeli start-ups, companies, research institutions, and government agencies that lead projects in the developing world.
- Placing selected students in internships in development organizations, government agencies, private corporations, or international NGOs in developing countries (e.g., India, Vietnam, Rwanda, Ethiopia, Kenya, Brazil) or in Israel.

The program is offered as part of the MA in Diplomacy and Conflict Resolution at the Lauder School of Government at the IDC, and can be recognized in fulfillment of other MA degree requirements.

Excellent applicants may be eligible to a Pears Foundation Scholarship, administered through the Society for International Development (SID) Israel.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE VISIT: www.sidisrael.activetrail.biz/IDCglobalimpact
OR CONTACT: globalimpact@sid-israel.org